Going Home: Jesus and Buddha as Brothers: Hanh, Thich Nhat ...

Did you know that Jesus meditated? In Living Buddha, Living Christ, Thich Nhat Hanh delivered a powerhouse bestseller about the affinities of Buddhist and Christian ideals. In Going Home, he focuses on fundamental concepts that still drive a wedge between the two religions--such as rebirth vs. eternal life, God vs. nirvana, and so on. After praising the differences between Christianity and Buddhism, Nhat Hanh proceeds to dissolve them in virtuosic style.

Also, Jesus and the Buddha were brothers in suffering. They did not avoid the legitimate suffering of their lives and used their suffering to grow into the most complete human beings the world has ever known. These conversations with the master have less to do with religion than with right living in the present moment.
